How will my A.A. collection live on when I'm gone?

Pass It On

"It is a decades-old axiom in our Fellowship that 'you can't keep it unless you give it away.' When we first enter A.A., we learn the soundness of this statement as we stay sober and find our own sobriety strengthened as we try to 'pass it on' to a newcomer."

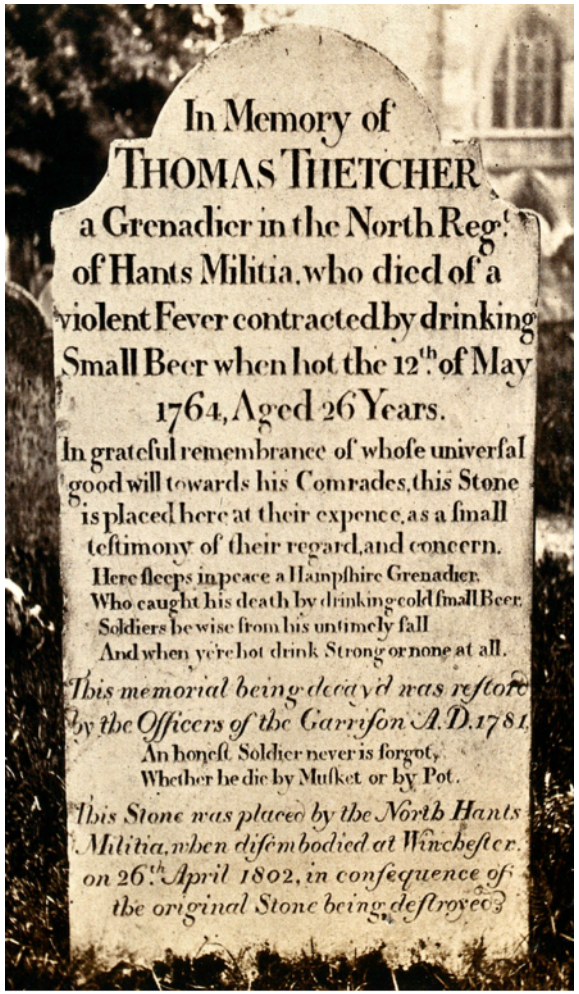
Purpose Of This Flyer

This is designed to make sure that A.A. members have a plan for their personal AA Archives / Collection. To ensure that it is passed on before attending the "Big Meeting" in the sky.



Tombstone from "Bill's Story" pg.1
'Here lies a Hampshire Grenadier'

What to do with your personal collection of AA Archives:

1. Make sure your family knows what your wishes are.

2. Pass it on to a sponsee.

3. Give it to your homegroup.

4. Give it to your district archives.

5. Give it to your State Archives

What does the Archives Committee accept?

Books, Pamphlets, Grapevines, Audio Recordings, Pictures of AA Events and Members, Letters and Correspondence, News Articles - Anything related to AA history and/or the AA service structure.

Please have a plan in place, we don't want anything to go to waste.
